DETAILED ACTION

Response to the Amendments

1. The reply filed 4/5/05 consists of amendment to claim 1, cancellation of claim 2, addition of claims 5-6, change in title and remarks related to rejection of claims. The claims are not allowable as explained below.

Specification

2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The amended title does not reflect the invention as claimed.

3. The following is a quotation of an appropriate paragraph of 37 CFR 1.75:

(d) The claim or claims must conform to the invention as set forth in the remainder of the specification and the terms and phrases used in the claims must find clear support or antecedent basis in the description so that the meaning of the terms in the claims may be ascertainable by reference to the description. (See 1.58(a)).

4. Specification is objected under 37 C.F.R. 1.75(d) because the optical fiber to be heat-resistant and extending through the collet have not been described.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The optical fiber to be heat-resistant has not been described.

Note: This feature has been ignored.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Intintoli et al. (2002/0138073).

Intintoli (Figures 1-3) shows an optical fiber probe having an optical fiber 12, a first protective pipe 22 with a heat-resistant collet 34 attached to a front part of the pipe 22, a second protective pipe 38 fitted in the first pipe and adhesive 38 is used in the base part of the first pipe to form a sealing plug wherein the fiber is movable relative to the collet and the base part of the pipe 22 is cooled at ordinary or room temperature.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2839

10. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Intintoli et al. (2002/0138073) in view of Mead et al. (5943460).

Intintoli discloses all the features of this claim as described in Paragraph 8 described above except the fiber extending through the collet. Such a feature is well known and common knowledge in the art of fiber optics. Mead shows an optical fiber extending through a collet. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the instant invention to provide such a feature to Intintoli's probe because this would provide an access to the fiber as is common knowledge and well known in the art.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

12. Applicant's arguments filed 4/5/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Intintoli shows the optical fiber movable relative to the collet. There is nothing in Intintoli to prevent such a movement. Combustion condition in a combustor is not positively claimed. Furthermore, no specifics are provided or claimed for the collet to be heat-resistant. Any element is resistant to heat to some extent.
